

Sexually Transmitted Diseases

Chapter 29 - Lesson 1 and 2

1. _____ in _____ sexually active teens will contract an STD before graduating from high school.
2. List three reasons why teens are at high risk for infections from STDs.
 - 1 _____
 - 2 _____
 - 3 _____
3. How many new cases of chlamydia occur each year? _____
4. List two symptoms of chlamydia in the male.
 - 1 _____
 - 2 _____
5. In the female, symptoms of chlamydia may not always be obvious. List three symptoms that may occur.
 - 1 _____
 - 2 _____
 - 3 _____
6. What is pelvic inflammatory disease? _____

7. What complications can chlamydia cause (baby) if the mother transmits it to her baby during delivery?
 - 1 _____
 - 2 _____
8. If chlamydia goes untreated and causes scar tissue to form in the male or female it can lead to _____
9. Why can gonorrhea not be picked up from a towel or toilet seat? _____
10. Are symptoms of gonorrhea more obvious in the male or female? _____
11. List four possible symptoms of gonorrhea in the female.
 - 1 _____
 - 2 _____
 - 3 _____
 - 4 _____
12. List three possible symptoms of gonorrhea in the male.
 - 1 _____
 - 2 _____
 - 3 _____
13. The symptoms of gonorrhea usually appear between _____ days and _____ weeks after sexual contact with an infected person.
14. If the early symptoms of gonorrhea go away without any treatment, does the person still need to be treated? _____
Why or why not? _____

35. If syphilis is untreated, 10 to 30 years later, what parts of the body may be affected?
1 _____ 3 _____
2 _____ 4 _____
36. Why is early treatment with syphilis so crucial? _____
37. Which STD has many similarities to the primary stage of syphilis? _____
38. How is chancroid spread? _____
39. Describe the symptom of candidiasis. (Yeast infection)
1 _____ 2 _____ 3 _____
40. Explain the treatment for yeast infections. _____

41. _____ are tiny insects that attach themselves to skin and hair in the public area and feed on blood.
42. What is the treatment for pubic lice? _____
43. _____ is an infestation of the skin by mites that cause red, swollen, itchy bumps similar to those found during the primary stage of syphilis.
44. Hepatitis B is caused by a _____ that attacks the _____.
45. How long after contact before the symptoms of hepatitis B appear? _____
46. Why is having an STD not like having a cold? _____

47. Identify two responsibilities of an individual who suspects he or she is infected with an STD.
1 _____
2 _____